ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of: Two Hundred Four (204) Months.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $100.00, which is due immediately. Any unpaid balance shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program.

Pursuant to Guideline Section 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term three (3) years on Count 1 of the Indictment under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office and General Order 05-02;

The defendant shall abstain from using illicit drugs, alcohol, and abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision;
6. During the course of supervision, the Probation Officer, with the agreement of defendant and defense counsel, may place the defendant in a residential drug treatment program approved by the United States Probation Office for treatment of narcotic addiction or drug dependency, which may include counseling and testing, to determine if the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs, and the defendant shall reside in the treatment program until discharge by the Program director and Probation Officer;

11. The defendant may not associate with anyone known to him to be a member or associate of the Mexican Mafia, the Eastside Baldwin Park Gang, and others known to him to be participants in any criminal street gang, with the exception of his wife and step-sons. He may not wear, display, use or possess any gang insignias, emblems, badges, buttons, caps, hats, jackets, shoes, or any other clothing that defendant knows evidence affiliation with any criminal street gang, and may not display any signs or gestures that defendant knows evidence affiliation with any criminal street gang;
12. The defendant shall not reside in any area purportedly claimed by the Mexican Mafia or the Eastside Baldwin Park Gang, and shall not, without prior written approval of the Probation Officer, visit or be present in any area known to him to be a location where members or associates of the Mexican Mafia and the Eastside Baldwin Pak Gang meet and/or assemble
13. The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency. Further re-disclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

The Court advises the defendant of his right to appeal.

The Court recommends placement in a facility in the Southern California, which shall be given primary consideration. The Court further recommends the BOP offer the defendant placement in the RDAP program.

The Court GRANTS the Government's Motion to Dismiss any remaining counts as to this defendant only.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
